ORDER ADOPTING REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Defendants Félix Ramírez (#9), Iran Feliciano (#6), Héctor Figueroa (#3), Antonio De Jesús-De Jesús (#8), moved or joined in-limine motions to suppress consensual recordings identified within the government's evidence under numbers: N-9, N-10, N-11, N-13 thru N-15 and N-18. A hearing was held before Magistrate-Judge Marcos E. López in which the tapes and matching transcripts were examined. Subsequently, the Magistrate-Judge recommended:

- (a) recording at N-11 is to be suppressed
- (b) the request for suppression of N-14 is deemed Moot, inasmuch as the objections to the same were withdrawn by defendant(s)
- (c) the suppression of tapes at N-9, N-10, N-13, N-15 and N-18 be denied

(d) segments of relevant portions of the transcripts for each recording were to be modified as recommended at pages 2 thru 4 of the Report and Recommendation (Docket No. 180).

No objections to the Report and Recommendation were filed by the government nor by defendants. Accordingly, the Magistrate-Judge's Report and Recommendation is APPROVED and the recommendations therein ADOPTED.

SO ORDERED.
